Quilting for the Novice

Mary Beth and Maureen Hartnett

Skill level: beginner

April 4, April 11, April 18 and May 2

Wednesday ~ 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Plans and designs are in the works for an entirely new, introductory quilting program. The program will introduce the entire quilting process - from fabric selection to adding the final binding to the quilt. During the sessions, techniques will be shared, and as the series progresses, some sewing will be done in class (although most of the stitching will be done at home between classes). The quilt is a new design - bold, trendy and striking (look for a sample of the quilt in the shop at the beginning of March).

Fee: $45.00

Bias Tube Continuous Binding

Renae Williams

Skill level: all

February 23

Friday ~ 11:00am – 1:00pm

In this class, learn to turn a square of fabric into yards and yards of continuous bias binding. This fast and easy technique lets you choose the width and length needed to finish your quilt. Measurements will be shared for 1" wide strips to 7" wide strips and up to twelve different quilt sizes.

Fee: $19.75

Binding the Finishing Touch

Barb Hudak

Skill level: all

March 20

Tuesday ~ 11:00am – 1:00pm

Your top has been pieced, layered and quilted. Now, all that remains is to close up the edges and at long last your quilt will be finished, done, and ready to use. This final step of binding your piece is exciting, but must not be rushed. In class you will learn how to trim and baste the edges of your quilt and how to make and apply binding that will complete your quilt with a professional look.

Fee: $18.00
