

Introduction to Improv

Maureen Hartnett

Skill level: intermediate

March 17

Saturday ~ 1:00pm – 5:00pm

Are you the type of sewist who agonizes over perfection? Are you looking to shake up your design esthetic, or maybe just interested in a new way to approach your craft? Improv piecing is a fantastic stitching style appropriate for everyone, and Maureen wants to share it with you! She will cover finding your style, exploring your stash, curious color combinations that work, and cool techniques like curved piecing and creating “potholes” in your quilts (while you create a mini improv piece in class). With Maureen’s guidance, and the “Artful Improv” book, you will leave with the information needed to create your own unique fiber masterpieces and a renewed sense of creativity.

Fee: $24.00

Advanced Improv

Maureen Hartnett

Skill Level: Intermediate

April 28

Saturday ~ 12:00pm – 5:00pm

Now that you have learned the mind-set and applications behind improv piecing, it's time to delve further into the soul of it. This class will build upon the techniques learned and utilized in “Improv your Style” (the introductory improv class). We will discuss in detail color theory, composition, and personal style as it pertains to your quilting. We will be working on a table runner or wall hanging – it's improv, so don't try to plan too much! Maureen suggests that you bring an array of fabrics in similar styles or color pallets to keep the process fun and stress free!

Fee: $25.00

Fabric Baskets

Laura Soles

Skill level: intermediate

June 16

Saturday ~ 11:00am – 3:00pm

What happens when you mix clothesline, fabric strips, and thread together? The end result is a beautiful fabric basket. Yes, they're back!! In class, you will learn the techniques needed for wrapping cotton clothesline with fabric strips and using your sewing machine to construct the basket. In four hours, you will have a finished small, round basket similar to the class sample. The larger class sample could be your next project! Laura will give you a look at her collection of small, medium and large baskets, vases and even pottery. All that inspiration and instruction - you'll never want to stop!

Fee: $39.00 (includes $19.95 book)
